INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION

Office of the Director

Washington 25, D. C.

August 23, 1955

Honorable Allen W. Dulles
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Allen:

At our meeting on August 1, which was attended by Mr. Sage and myself and members of your staff, the question of liaison between ICA and CIA was discussed briefly.

It appears that CIA's contacts with this agency are legion and in general are working in a satisfactory manner at whatever level and with whatever department concerned.

Mr. Charrette, Director, Statistics and Reports Division, sits on your Economic Intelligence Committee representing this agency. I believe that many of the contacts of CIA on economic matters are being handled directly with Mr. Charrette, although your agency works directly, and I believe satisfactorily, with whatever department of ICA is pertinent to the subject at hand.

On all matters pertaining to security and placement, CIA works directly with Mr. T. E. Naughten, Director, Office of Personnel Security and Integrity, which I believe has also proved to be a satisfactory arrangement.

For purposes of close and confidential liaison with my own office, I suggest that your agency work through Mr. DeWitt L. Sage who is my Assistant.

Yours very sincerely,

/s/

John B. Hollister
